

10/29/80

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

-----

In Re:

IN BANKRUPTCY

FRANK ARLYN VANDEHEY and
PATRICIA ANN VANDEHEY

No. 80-00576
Chapter 13

Debtors.

-----

FINDINGS OF FACT,
CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND ORDER

The above named debtors having duly filed with the Court a motion for stay consistent with the automatic stay originally issued by the Court at the time of the filing of the petition herein pending the appeal to the United States District Court; and the First American National Bank of Wausau, a creditor, having requested the Court, pursuant to Rule 805, that the debtors be required to post a bond at least in the amount of respondent's costs, and further that a supersedeas bond be required to the extent of the amounts owed to the respondent while the action is stayed pending appeal; and the same having been duly noticed for hearing, and the attorneys having presented their arguments to the Court, and the Court having duly considered the entire record on file and the arguments of counsel, and being fully advised in the premises, FINDS:

1. That the stay order requested by the debtors should be granted without a supersedeas bond, and that the motion for bond for security for costs should be granted.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

That an order be entered denying the request for a supersedeas bond and allowing a bond for security for costs.

O R D E R

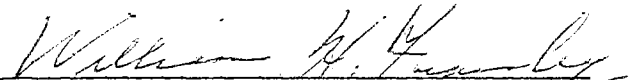

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

1. That the debtors furnish a cost bond in the sum of $250.00, to be approved by the Court, pending determination of said appeal.

2. That the automatic stay effective at the time of the filing of the petition herein is hereby continued pending the determination of said appeal without any supersedeas bond.

Dated: October 29, 1980.
