MEMORANDUM OPINION,
FINDINGS OF FACT, AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Merrill Iron and Steel, Inc., and Elroy Zocher, by Terrence J. Byrne, have filed a complaint alleging that the debtor, Edward R. Altenburg, has wrongfully removed, concealed, and transferred certain property and personally retained possession of said property. The debtor appears by William J. Rameker and contests the complaint. The debtor also has filed a motion to dismiss the complaint for not being timely and requests the imposition of reasonable expenses against the plaintiffs. The plaintiffs have also motioned the court to dismiss the complaint against the debtor. It is the conclusion of the court that the complaint should be dismissed without costs and without attorney fees being awarded to either party.
